KOS & SAMESYN

Dear friends take a trip down memory lane with Get Together's old fashioned favourites.

Ja, vanjaar word 'n nuweling gebore vir Get Together Crossing, ons eie Deli.

Kom geniet ons pragtige Deli met vars gebakte brode, ongelooflike vleise en lekkernye.

Ons bederf jou nogsteeds met ons tradisionele kosse wat jou aan jou kinderdae herinner, melkkos, moerkoffie met nat-beskuit en al jou gunsteling. My opregte dank aan ons Hemelse Vader en elke kliënt wat Get Together al die jare ondersteun het.

Met vanjaar se spyskaart wil ons jou weer bewus maak van die oorfloed, jou laat terugdink aan die mooi oomblikke saam met jou geliefdes en al die lekker kuiers in ouma se kombuis.

Ek dra graag hierdie spyskaart op aan Philip, my man, wat my altyd ondersteun en dit altyd vir my moontlik maak.

Ek sluit graag af met die woorde van George Bernard Shaw "Geen liefde is so opreg soos die liefde vir kos nie."

Groete

Antoinette

PAP SE STORIE

Die storie van mieliepap het begin toe ons voorouers met Ossewaens oor die Drakensberge getrek het. Ons in die koshuis het grootgeraak op slap mieliepap, Oats pap en as jy werklik die dag gelukkig was kon jy dalk Matabella pap kry vir ontbyt. Ek eet graag Mieliepap met botter, suiker en bietjie melk. My pa verkies dit met kailings. (Die storie loop mos dat Boesmanlanders vleis eet vir drie maaltye 'n dag!)

Ek het besef pap is amper soos brood - dit bring mense bymekaar en kan vir ontbyt, middagete of aandete geniet word.

Die manier waarop jy dit gaar maak sê iets van jou herkoms en jou grootword tafel.

Steek sommer vanaand 'n vuurtjie aan en vier jou herkoms! Vier wie jy is, waarvandaan jy kom en wat jou gemaak het wie jy vandag is.

Deel jou storie en geskiedenis met jou kinders, want so kweek ons 'n nasie van trots.

DIE PLATTELAND SE

Afrikaners het 'n plattelandse mentaliteit, al woon ons ook waar. Jy hoef nie melkkoeie en mielielande om jou te sien of met jou tone in die hoendermis te staan om 'n plattelander te wees nie - jy kan reg in die middel van die besigste stad woon. Om 'n plattelander te wees, is nie noodwendig 'n geografiese ding nie, dit is

'n hartsding. 'n Plattelandse hart reik uit na ander, dit verwelkom die bure met 'n skottel macaroni en kaas, spesiaal vir hulle gebak, doen inkopies vir die buurvrou as sy siek is, komplimenteer die buurman met sy mooi tuin, dit skroom nie om 'n koppie meel te leen of uit te leen nie, dit soek nie skoor nie. 'n Plattelandse hart is mooi en omdat jou hart mooi is, kom daar altyd mooi goed terug najou!

MY GRANDMOTHER ON MY MOTHER'S SIDE

Today I nostalgically think back to my grandmother (the one that's on my mother's side) and how much she meant to me. Precious childhood memories of what a great influence she had on my life, is to me a precious memory.

We made animals from shells, crocheted, sewed, baked cookies, drank "moer" coffee, and ate Humbug sweets. I recall her dressing table with crochet patches, 4711, snuff, Vinolia soap, and a doll with eyes that open/close (we couldn't touch).

My grandmother loved cooking and giving opinions on Mom's cooking. She liked tripe, fish heads, and cow tongue - dishes I didn't agree with. I was also wary of her snuff getting into food since the tin was always close. My grandmother was a deep person that believed books express emotions for which you could not find words. I believe that's why I always read when I am sad or emotional. Her exceptional sayings I still use today, and think I inherited her creative talents.

DIE LEWE IS MOOI

Nourie aand besluit ek dit is tyd om net weer bietjie die mooi in ons lewe te vier. Ek steek somer lekker baie kerse aan. My man kom geskok in die huis in en sy eerste (baie onskuldige) reaksie is "Wie se dood gedenk ons?" Ek kan nie help om snaaks te kry nie. Dit is al wanneer ek nog mooi goed doen op al die datums wat ek my ma die heel meeste verlang. Moedersdag, haar verjaarsdag, die dag waarop sy Huis toe is. Dan bak ek koek, steek kerse aan, gaan hou piekniek in die veld, drink tee uit mooi koppies.
